SUTTON,

October 25th, 1907.

DEAR SIR,

Please excuse me for taking the liberty of writing you, but I feel it my duty to do so considering how perfectly satisfied I am with my Teeth you prepared for me. I shall recommend you to all my friends. You are at liberty at any time to use these few lines as a testimonial. Believe me to remain, yours faithfully, Mrs. H—.

SUTTON,

14th December, 1907.

DEAR SIR,

The dentures are keeping in place well and are no discomfort, and I feel I owe you my best thanks for the skill you have shown, and the comfort, I am sure, these teeth will eventually prove. Yours faithfully, H. W. U—
